

Sister Alice Meis, CSA

Sister Alice (formerly Evangelist) Meis, CSA, 92, a resident of Nazareth Court, 375 Gillett St., Fond du Lac, passed away February 10, 2008, at her home. She was born August 24, 1915, in Severin, Kansas, a daughter of the late Philip and Pauline Koerner Meis. Sister Alice professed vows in the Congregation of Saint Agnes of August 15, 1935.

One of five Meis sisters from Kansas to become a Sister of St. Agnes, Sister Alice ministered in the congregation as a homemaker for fifty years of her nearly 73 years as a professed sister. She created tasty meals for sisters in various missions in Wisconsin, Indiana, New York, and Illinois, as well as doing laundry and helping with housecleaning chores. For six years in the 1960's, her culinary skills found their way to missions in Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, and Quito, Ecuador. In the 1970's she spent four years serving the poor through the Agnesian-run Social Service Center in Mobile, Alabama. From there, Sister Alice once again was called to use her cooking skills in The Leo House in New York City.

One of her sisters remembers that as a child, Sister Alice was fearless, able to handle the bullies of whom other children in their country school were afraid. That fearlessness stood her in good stead when she was called to the strenuous missionary life in Latin America, to social service in Alabama, and to work in the heart of Manhattan at The Leo House, serving a variety of visitors from all over the world.

Since 1989 Sister Alice has lived her retirement years first at the Motherhouse in Fond du Lac, then at Nazareth Heights, and finally at Nazareth Court and Center. Sister was an avid Chicago Bears fan in the heart of Packerland—another sign of fearlessness. She often had a joke, a clever answer, or a humorous twist of language that brought a smile to those with whom she interacted. As her health failed, Sister was uncomplaining and she frequently expressed her desire to be with God. Sister's pleasant nature, her ready wit, and her directness are gifts that will be missed by those she leaves behind.

Survivors include two sisters, Edna Leiker of Burbank, California, and Sister Roberta Meis, CSA, of Fond du Lac, nieces, nephews, the members of the Congregation of Saint Agnes with whom she lived and ministered, other relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death are four brothers, Alois, Robert, Fr. Flavian, O.F.M. Cap., and Leo, five sisters, Victoria, Tillie McBride, Sister Paulina, CSA, Sister Matilda, CSA, and Sister Jane, CSA.
