

O Weaver God,
reveal to us your
hidden designs
as we gather material for Chapter 2017.
We lay the broken,
incomplete,
yet vital and vibrant
threads of our lives
into your creating hands.
Place into our hands your threads of courage and hope,
of silence and sharing,
of contemplation and celebration, of solitude and solidarity.
Empower us to weave, with You, a tapestry of beauty and strength that reflects your desire for our community,
our world, and
Your mission into the future.
O Weaver God,
reveal through us your hidden designs.
Amen
