Celebrating Jubilee In CSA And In The Global Church

My vocation was nurtured by the love and strong faith foundation of my parents and through the Catholic education they provided for me. The sense of God's call grew gradually and then God surprised me by directing me to CSA.

The winding paths and increased responsibility in my early years of ministry provided opportunities to develop my skills and talents in administrative work. Then again, the Holy Spirit, the God of surprises, drew me to a more challenging ministry in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee Central Offices, where in many ways I am serving the local and global Church.

I am so appreciative of God's call and the blessings of courage and hope to be able to journey each day with the Holy Spirit as guide and friend. God is so good.
