

Sister Mary Alice is the Coordinator of Religious Education at St. Stephen's Parish.

Dedicated Educator

Sister Mary Alice life has been dedicated to education for her adult life. She has spent a total of 52 years as an educator with 41 of those years as a Catholic school principal. "Education is my passion" shared Sister Mary Alice. "I retired twelve years ago and have volunteered ever since teaching religious education at the parish level. Sunday mornings the children I teach really get my adrenaline going!"

My life's motto is "you can grow through a negative with God's grace to finding a positive".

"As a sister of St. Agnes it has been a joy to work with and live with such a joyful group of women of the Church" smiled Sister Mary Alice.
