
Ministry of Prayer and Presence

An elegant and gracious woman of 91 years, Sister Anne lives in Montgomery, Alabama, with Sister Leanne. “When I retired from parish ministry work in 2006, I wanted to continue serving and living in Montgomery,” shared Sister Anne. “Sister Leanne was also living alone at the time while serving as director of the Central Alabama Laubach Literacy Council. I was able to join Sister Leanne in the ministry of prayer and presence. I have always wanted to live in community with other members of CSA, however, this had not always been possible. For the past nine years, I had lived on my own because of the location of the parish where I ministered. I have missed community life and truly value the sharing of morning prayer, eating meals together and being part of each other’s lives,” continued Sister Anne. “Living in community now with Sister Leanne has provided me with a very happy, joyous life.”
