STORIES FROM MINISTRY

As I was praying with my family for my brother who was contemplating a change of ministry for himself, I faced a strong urge to change my own ministry. With time and prayer, I understood and believed that was not God's call for me.

WORDS OF ADVICE

Be faithful and flexible! The call to help God's/the world's needy continues forever.

A BLESSING TO SHARE

May the blessing of love and compassion be your gift forever!

HOW CSA CHARISM INSPIRES ME

It gives me courage and strength to continue doing all that I can. It helps me be ok with letting go of all that I can no longer do.
