Thoughts from Sister Collean on her 75th Jubilee

God has and is walking with me each day.

One of the special gifts I can give to anyone and I have received from others in my lifetime, is my presence. Regardless of the occasion, whether a visit, a call, or a get-together, just being present speaks volumes. It shows you care and that you are interested and want to rejoice or to pray with someone.

Whatever the occasion, you took the time to let someone know they are loved and that someone else cares. It lets individuals know they matter and are remembered. We are told, no one is to be left alone. Whatever we bring, a prayer, a smile, a word of congratulations, encouragement, sympathy or joy, we have brought Christ who lives in each one of us, to someone in need. I share Christ with others each day. Jesus died on the cross for us out of love and, if we want others to know and love him also, we need to be a presence to others.
