"It seems that all my life I wanted to be a Sister like my teachers at St. Florian's. I looked at them with awe and reverence. After school hours I'd stay and help, cleaning boards, dusting, arranging papers, etc. I came to the convent to help spread the kingdom of God, to do my part to educate children, to bring them to know and love God."

"I don't remember what was stressed in our formation years in the 1930's. I was just glad that I was there and wanted to do what God wanted. At ninety-nine years of age details of the Sisters in my novitiate group of 1934 have vanished- but I know they have been transformed from God's "earthly heaven" to God's eternal heaven forever. My eighty years in God's ministry have been a cherished gift from God. I pray that others will be open to realize and accept God's goodness that surrounds them. Celebrating jubilee is a special time to again express my gratitude with jubilation for GOD'S GOODNESS!"
