How much have you done, Yahweh, my God!

Your wonders, your plans for us, You have no equal! Ps. 40 vs. 5

Indeed, My God, Your wonders and plans have blessed my sixty years.

You filled these years with children from Wisconsin farms, and children from New York City.

You were there among the cornfields and the skyscrapers.

You have walked with me on forest trails and on city streets.

I felt your presence on mountains, in deserts, and at the water's edge.

I heard your voice in the silence of hermitages and above the roar of subway trains.

The innocence of children,

the wisdom of the elderly, and the companionship of friends have been your gifts to me.

God, I celebrate all your plans for me.
